Principal, Mr. M. Jackson

Dear Members of the Maxson Class of 2003, Both here in the United States and around the world, your middle school years have seen some frightening events. So, as you move on with your lives, on to high school and adulthood, my deepest hope for all of you is that you know peace. In your hearts. In the wider world. And that each of you understands, as we all must, that to enjoy peace, we must work for it. Whatever career path you go down, please take your responsibility for this work seriously. You have inherited a world that is far less than perfect. Your goal should be to hand over a better one to your children.

served you.
Peace,
Mr. Jackson

I wish you only the best. I am thankful for the opportunity to have

Assistant Principal, Ms. P. Blowe

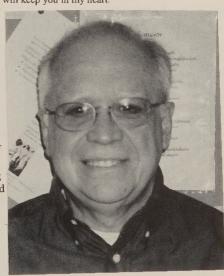

Congratulations on your graduation from Maxson Middle School!
You are to be commended for this outstanding achievement. It has been a privilege to watch you grow in poise, confidence, and ability to reach and exceed standards. You will be rewarded throughout your life if you make a conscious effort to do the following: always be willing to work hard, to be known for your integrity, to be extremely well-mannered (and well-groomed), and to be trustworthy. Thank you for your invaluable contribution to Maxson Middle School. You will be greatly missed, but fond memories will keep you in my heart.

Vice - Principal, Mrs. Van Langen

Dear Eighth Grade Students –
You're about half way there!!!
Four successful years of high school and four successful years of college put you much closer to realizing your dreams and building a good life for yourself. Work hard and keep yourself focused – you can do it!

Vice-Principal, Mr. L. Lopez

Basketball game puts men against the boys in fun match-up

Devoted students, parents and members of the community came out Feb. 27 to the Maxson Middle School in Plainfield to support the Maxson students vs. the Plainfield Police basketball event.

All in attendance were anxious to see how the seventh and eight grade students would fair against the seasoned men of the Plainfield Police Department.

Cathy Battle of the Maxson School's Parent Teacher Organization, seventh grade teacher Brenda Noble and Catherine Nelson worked hard together to make this evening hap-

The game wasn't about winning or losing; it was about having fun

The game, which ended in a tie score of 51-51, left both sides feeling like winners.

Battle said, "This was a perfect opportunity for the children of Maxson School to see the police officers in the community as everyday people. We need to continue to work with the community so the people could pull closer together to make better things happen for the Plainfield community. Since I carry very high expectations, I would have liked the gymnasium to be packed to witness the start of the community working together for the common good of the children. This is the first of many future events to come."

Police Benevolent Association President Sergeant Crawford commented, "We can't stop here. All the police officers felt we should have done this a while ago."

The students agreed. Eveanandi Butler, a seventh grade student at Maxson said, "The Maxson students vs. Plainfield Police basketball game was fantastic. It provided quite a few laughs because it was a serious but fun game. The talent of all the players shined through that

A majority of the boys that played

Ms. McAllister

Ms. Deanne

I hope all of you work hard and show MR. DAV that we did what we were supposed to do; and that is to excel.

I wish you success. Come back and visit.

I will miss you guys. You guys were one of the best groups I ever had. Ron Brown 03 forever.

Good luck in high school. I will surely miss all of you. Ms. Peterson

Well Wishes

CASH 8th Grade Teachers May your dreams take you wherever you wish to go.

ror if areams are Life is a broken-winged bird Hold fast to dreams For if dreams die That cannot fly. Langston Hughes

Thank you to all the students that helped put this book together. (especially the 6th graders). Good luck to all the 8th graders!! Mrs. Dowdell-Ceasar Ms. Dubrow

8TH Graders – Aim High!

Mr. Way

Mr. Geiger

To the eighth grade class... curtesy of Bob Dylan May God bless and keep you always, may your wishes all come true, May you always do for others, and let others do for you. May you always up for outers, and let outers up for you.

And the sky, and climb on every rung, And may you stay forever young.

Mr. Fiorella

Always try your best. Capitalize on your strengths, and compensate for your weaknesses. Team work and collaboration helps this concept fit in the real world. Learning is a lifelong process...keep learning...apply what you know, and follow your destiny. In the word of Shakespear "To thine own self be true."

"Seek your truth"
